

THE SEVEN YEARS WAR

Operations in 1756

KEY

⊛	Fortified Depot
X	Defile
X	Battlefield

Strength figures shown do not include heavy artillery, engineer, or garrison troops.

Both armies maneuvered indecisively after the Battle of Lowositz, Browne in an attempt to find a way around the Prussians, Frederick to prevent Browne from relieving the Saxons at Prina.

18,000 scattered Saxon troops hastily assembled in the fortified camp at Prina.

Battle of Lowositz 1 Oct.

Schwerin entered Bohemia to support Frederick's attack. After the Saxon army retired to Prina, Schwerin threatened Austria communications.

While the actions shown were occurring, Austria continued assembling forces from Italy, Flanders and the Turkish frontiers in the vicinity of Vienna.

